GENEALOGICAL MAG I 131-5 gives the following early account but with no indication of the sources of information. --- LANE OF BENTLEY HALL (NOW OF KINGS BROMLEY MANOR), CO. STAFFORD. BY HENRY MURRAY LANE (Chester Herald). THIS ancient and loyal family has been seated in the county of Stafford for seven hundred years. The earliest name upon record is that of Sir Reginald de Lona of Halton, co. Chester, who was living in the reign of King Henry II, and married Elinor, daughter of Sir Adam de Bostock. His son and heir, Sir Richard de Lone, took to wife Alicia, daughter of Robert del Holme, Lord of the Manor of Traumer. The great-grandfather(?) of Sir Reginald came into England, according to Hollingshed, with the Conqueror, and the name occurs on the roll of Battle Abbey. Adam de Lona of Hampton, co. Stafford, and of Halton, co. Chester, son and heir of Sir Richard de Lone, married Isabella, daughter of Roger Cotgreave, by Elinor, daughter of Sir William Brereton. Among the Crusaders who went to the Holy Land under the banner of Coeur de Lion was Adam Loun, or Lone, of Hampton. The Lanes of Halton intermarried with many of the leading Cheshire families. A Sir Ralph Lane, temp. William Rufus, married Agnes, daughter of Sir Hugh de Colverley; another Sir Ralph (of Halton and Bowden, co. Chester) married Joan, daughter of Sir Reginald Fitton. His son Richard married Matilda, daughter of Sir Matthew Ellis of Overleigh, co. Chester; and the son of this marriage, Reginald, of Halton, married Mabilia, daughter of Sir Edward Crosse of Crosse Hall, co. Lancaster. How or in what manner this Reginald " of Halton " was related to the Reginald "of Halton" who married Elinor Bostock does not appear. John en la Lone, son of Adam and Isabella Cotgreave, had four sons, viz.: 1. Richard de la Lone, who was living anno 1316, 9 Edward II.; 2. Thomas de la Lone ; 3. William de la Lone; and 4. Henry de la Lone.
